

I would like to voice my protest over any legislation that would limit or remove the ability of national satellite radio systems to provide local weather and traffic information on major metropolitan areas. I pay for these services and there is no way to easily replace them. I truly cannot believe you would even consider such a restriction on information flow.